At least we can dream about them. Even make some plans perhaps? Maybe you like to go shopping with one of your best friends. The only problem is, you live in the countryside and the shopping centre is in the big city. Sadly you don't know your way around there so you will need to ask for directions.

I am sure you will get to the shopping centre. But then what?

Find out all about shops, and places in the city, asking for directions and shopping in this learning track.
